Adding a Spouse

MyActiveCenter allows only 1 account per e-mail.

If an e-mail account is shared between spouses, the second spouse may be added at any time by accessing the “My Account” page.

A spouse may be added when creating an account by checking the “I’d like to share my account with my spouse” box or at a later date by following the next few steps.

Adding a Spouse

The screenshot displays the OPC Social & Activity Center website interface. At the top, the navigation bar includes the OPC logo, the site name "OPC Social & Activity Center", and menu items for "ACTIVITIES", "GROUPS", and "ABOUT". User account icons for notifications and shopping cart are present, along with a greeting "Hi Michele!". A dropdown menu is open, showing options: "My Activities", "My Centers", "My Account" (highlighted with a red box), and "Sign Out".
